

Disclaimer

The Gauteng Provincial Government, Gautrain Management Agency, Gautrain operator and their respective shareholders, board members, directors, officers, employees, subcontractors, agents and/or affiliates, involved in part, shall not be liable, to the extent permissible by law, for any loss, damage or injury (including but not limited to consequential or special damages or loss of profits) arising whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise from any passenger with a valid ticket and/or other person (and property) using or entering the Gautrain system.

The waiver referred to in paragraph 1 above will be binding on the heirs, dependants, assignees, executors, trustees or other legal representatives of the passenger and/or person in respect of whom there is a future interest.

Should the Gauteng Provincial Government, Gautrain Management Agency and Gautrain Operator fail to provide the service to the extent that such other operator provides, or having the obligation to provide, fails to provide such service, the Gauteng Provincial Government, Gautrain Management Agency and Gautrain Operator shall, to the extent permissible by law, have no liability of any nature whatsoever to any passenger or person to whom a ticket as contemplated in paragraph 1 above is issued.

Control of Access to Public Premises and Vehicles Act

General Notification

Access to the Gautrain Premises, vehicles and network is regulated in terms of the Control of Access to Public Premises and Vehicles Act, Act 53 of 1985 ("Act") and the Gautrain Rules.

Contravention of this Act can result in a fine not exceeding R3,000.00 or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or both such fine and imprisonment.

A Gautrain Security Official/Gautrain Official may, under section 2(1) of the Act, require a passenger/person to:

- furnish his or her name, address and any other relevant information required by the Gautrain Security Official/Gautrain Official;
- produce proof of his or her identity to the satisfaction of the Gautrain Security Official/Gautrain Official;
- declare whether he or she has any dangerous object in his or her possession or under his or her control;
- declare what the contents are of any vehicle, suitcase, attaché case, bag, handbag, folder, envelope, parcel, container or any other object of a similar nature which he or she has in his or her possession or under his or her control, and show those contents to the Gautrain Security Official/Gautrain Official;
- if intending to enter a designated area or found inside such area, subject himself or herself and anything which he or she has in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control to an examination by an electronic or other apparatus in order to determine the presence of any dangerous object;
- hand to a Gautrain Security Official/Gautrain Official anything which he or she has in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control for examination or custody;
- be searched by a Gautrain Security Official/Gautrain Official;
- be subject to CCTV monitoring.

The Gauteng Provincial Government, Gautrain Management Agency and Gautrain Operator and their respective shareholders, board members, directors, officers, employees, subcontractors, agents and/or affiliates may at their sole discretion cause any vehicle to be driven, towed, relocated or otherwise removed from the car park premises to any place of their choice.

A vehicle on the Gautrain premises considered abandoned or parked for over 6 months may be moved to any place or disposed of, wherein the provisions mentioned above shall apply mutatis mutandis.
